

Violet Thompson is a hard working American who has seized the opportunity offered by the Javits-Wagner-O'Day Act (JWOD) to expand her horizons through meaningful employment. For six decades, JWOD has acted as an effective and cost-efficient catalyst to open jobs to people who are blind, like Violet Thompson. Today, not only is Ms. Thompson helping to support herself and her family, she is working in an environment that has helped to nurture her sense of self-worth and productivity. "I feel equal at ABVI-Goodwill . . . I've worked [at] other places and wasn't treated the same way," says Ms. Thompson. "I really, really love my job."

Mr. Speaker, please join me in acknowledging and congratulating a fine American whose hard work and perseverance are honored by this award.

STATEMENT OF THE HONORABLE
TOM DELAY REGARDING THE
SUCCESES OF THE CHOCTAW
INDIANS OF MISSISSIPPI

HON. TOM DELAY

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 1998

Mr. DELAY Mr. Speaker, I rise to salute a true economic success story—the Choctaw Indians of Mississippi.

Lead by the dynamic Chief Phillip Martin, the Choctaw Indians, using the power of the free market and the philosophy of individual freedom, have improved the life of the members of the tribe and the surrounding community.

For over 150 years, the tribe was mired in the deepest poverty imaginable. Unemployment was often as high as 75 percent. Life expectancy was only 45 years and local education stopped at the sixth grade.

But lead by Chief Martin, the Choctaw Indians have seized the power of self-determination and economic freedom. By relying on the power of the market and not the power of government the Choctaws have become an economic powerhouse. Through their ingenuity and hard work, Chief Martin and the Choctaws have established a new paradigm of success for all Native Americans.

I urge other citizens who wish to better their lives to view the tribe as a model for success. The Choctaws are a powerful example of the miracles that personal freedom can work in the lives of all Americans.

IN HONOR OF THE EXHIBITION:
LINUS PAULING AND THE TWEN-TIETH CENTURY

HON. GEORGE E. BROWN, JR.

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 1998

Mr. BROWN of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to comment on the Exhibition: Linus Pauling and the Twentieth Century and to recognize the man whose hard work and dedication led to the opening of this special exhibition. The exhibition will open in San Francisco on September 20, 1998 before touring other sites.

This national touring exhibition is dedicated to the late Dr. Linus Pauling, the great American scientist, for his extraordinary contributions to science and humanity. In 1954, Dr. Pauling received the Nobel prize in chemistry for his discovery of the nature of the chemical bond. He also won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1962 for his efforts to ban the testing of nuclear weapons. Dr. Pauling, the only person to receive two unshared Nobel prizes, continued to work for a healthier and more peaceful world until his death in 1994 at the age of 93.

The exhibition is designed to inspire audiences of all ages with the life of one of the greatest scientists and humanitarians of this century. It will feature Dr. Pauling's achievements in science and his efforts to promote peace. With an educational emphasis on grades 6–12, the exhibition will provide an excellent opportunity to teach our children about the important role scientists can play in the progress of human culture and world peace.

Mr. Speaker, I want to recognize the role of Dr. Daisaku Ikeda, President of the Soka Gakkai International, for his initiative in organizing this special exhibition. Dr. Ikeda, an internationally recognized peace activist, developed a deep friendship with Dr. Pauling during the final years of his life. Their dialogue, spanning the subjects of sciences, humanity, war and peace, was eventually published in 1992 in a book titled "A Life Long Quest for Peace."

Mr. Speaker, I take great pride in supporting this exhibition to promote the legacy of Dr. Linus Pauling in the U.S. and around the world. I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring the opening of the Exhibition: Linus Pauling and the Twentieth Century.

CHIEF MARTIN

HON. MIKE PARKER

OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 1998

Mr. PARKER. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride that I come to the floor today to pay tribute to one of Mississippi's finest and most dedicated leaders, Chief Phillip Martin of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians. The special vision of Chief Martin has enabled the Choctaw tribe to rise out of deep poverty to become a thriving economic force in my state.

As Representative from the 4th District of Mississippi, I have been able to get to know Chief Martin and observe firsthand his dynamic leadership and entrepreneurial savvy.

Chief Martin is known for his hard work to move the Choctaw Tribe closer to a self-reliant, self-empowerment tribe. Chief Martin is convinced that through private enterprise, the Choctaw Tribe will continue to prosper.

It is an honor for me to stand here today to praise and thank Chief Martin and the Choctaw Indians for their contributions to the great state of Mississippi.

TRIBUTE TO BOETTCHER
SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

HON. BOB SCHAFFER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 15, 1998

Mr. BOB SCHAFFER of Colorado. Mr. Speaker, I rise in recognition of the 1998 Boettcher Foundation Scholarship winners. Each year the Boettcher Foundation grants 40 merit-based scholarships to superior young people from Colorado high schools. Begun in 1952 as a statewide competition recognizing scholarship, leadership and achievement by young men and women, the program seeks to reward outstanding high school seniors who demonstrate the potential to make significant contributions to Colorado. Since the program's inception, the Foundation has awarded 1779 scholarships. The Boettcher Scholarship Program is budgeted at $1,600,000 annually and is one of the largest private scholarship programs in the state, and one of the leading merit scholarship programs in the nation.

These awards cover virtually all college expenses for recipients who choose to further their education in their home state of Colorado. The scholarships consist of full tuition, fees, and book allowance, and a $2,800 annual stipend for living expenses. The scholarships are granted for eight semesters at either a public or private four-year college or university within the state as long as the scholar maintains a minimum GPA of 3.0.

Selection is strictly "merit-based," allowing all seniors in Colorado to compete based upon their individual accomplishments. This year's scholarship winners were selected from approximately 750 applicants on the basis of their academic performance, demonstrated ability, outstanding character and their participation and leadership in both school and community activities. The minimum eligibility requirements to apply include the following: Students must rank among the top 5% of their graduating class, have a score of at least 1200 on the SAT or 27 ACT, be a U.S. citizen and a Colorado resident for their junior and senior year of high school.

I congratulate all the 1998 Boettcher Foundation scholarship winners and their parents, and hereby recognize those residing in my district: Ryan Avery of Ft. Collins, son of Mark and Cynthia Avery; Kristin Bjornsen of Ft. Collins, daughter of Robert and Mary Ann Bjornsen; Charity Hermes of Elbert, daughter of Steven and Rose Hermes; Ryan Johnson of Eaton, son of John and Deanne Johnson; Jennifer Malers of La Junta, daughter of Ralf and Linda Malers; Regina Mattie of Trinidad, daughter of Anthony and Lucille Mattie; Susan Nicholson of Aurora, daughter of Roger and Mary Kathleen Dykstra; Scott Wilkinson of Ft. Collins, son of Eric and Janice Wilkinson; and Jordan Willeke of Otis, son of Leland and Denise Willeke.

The Trustees of Boettcher Foundation are: Mrs. Charles Boettcher, II, E. Atwell Gilman, A. Barry Hirschfeld, Edward Lehman, Harry T. Lewis, Jr., Claudia Boettcher Merthan, John C. Mitchell, J. William Sorensen and George M. Wilfley.

Mr. Speaker, I congratulate the Boettcher Foundation Scholarship winners on their successes and look forward to their leadership of Colorado.
